Foundation and Cradle of Taekwon-Do

Article 1. Foundation of Taekwon-Do

Taekwon-Do is a Korean national martial art which was founded on April 11, 1955 by General Choi Hong Hi, who perfected and systematized it

Article 2. Cradle of Taekwon-Do

The cradle of Taekwon-Do is Korea, where the founder was born. All those who practice Taekwon-Do in this globe should regard it as their honorable obligation to visit the homeland of Taekwon-Do, DPR Korea. On the occasion of staying in the motherland of Taekwon-Do, the visitors can pay their respects & reverences to late Gen. Choi Hong Hi, the founder of Taekwon-Do, who rests in peace in Pyongyang, the capital City of DPRK, as well as can acquire the spirits and original techniques of Taekwon-Do created and developed by him through the training together with the Korean Instructors and masters in the Taekwon-Do Palace and holy place.

CHAPTER 2

Name, Domicile, Emblem and Flag, Official Languages, Financial Sources and Legal Status

Article 1. Name

The English name of the organization is the “International Taekwon-Do Federation” (hereinafter referred to as ITF) inaugurated by Gen. Choi Hong Hi, the founder of Taekwon-Do, on March 22, 1966.

Article 2. Domicile

The legal domicile of the ITF Headquarters is Draugasse 3, 1210 Vienna, capital city of the Republic of Austria. The ITF HQ operates its business in the whole territory of Austria and throughout the world with regard to its Taekwon-Do activities.

In the case where the Headquarters may be required to be moved to another country, the decision will be determined by the Executive Board.

The ITF HQ shall organize and manage its daily business in accordance with the law of the country where the Headquarters are located.

Article 3. Emblem

The English Name of the organization “International Taekwon-Do Federation” is inscribed around the globe to imply that the ITF is a world-wide organization and that Taekwon-Do is a martial art practiced world-wide. In the centre of the globe is a fist, engraved in bold relief. On both sides of the fist, written in Korean, is “Tae-kwon” to emphasize that Taekwon-Do is the best of all martial arts. The blue background symbolizes righteous and pure spirit to be nurtured by Taekwon-Do practitioners.

Article 4. Flag

The ITF Flag is 1.66 metres long and 1 metre wide. Its three sides excluding the pole side are tasseled. In its centre is drawn the ITF Emblem, above which is written “International Taekwon-

Do Federation” in the Korean language, and beneath which is written the same name but in ancient Korean characters. Its background color is scarlet with blackish tint.

The figure 66 in its length represents 1966, in which the ITF was inaugurated. The goldon tassel symbolizes Courtesy and Integrity from the Taekwon-Do tenets, whilst the background color symbolizes Perseverance, Self-control, and Indomitable Spirit. The ITF title in ancient Korean characters implies the time-honored history of Taekwon-Do, and the Korean martial arts that date back to the ancient Korea of Tangun.

Article 5. Motto

The ITF Motto includes Courtesy, Integrity, Perseverance, Self-Control and Indomitable Spirit.

Article 6. Hymn

The ITF Hymn is the “Song of Taekwon-Do”, which was written by the first ITF President Gen. Choi Hong Hi, founder of Taekwon-Do, and composed by Mr. Kim Yun Yong.

Article 7. Ownership

Ownership of the ITF Emblem, Flag, Badge, Motto, Recognition Plaque, Dojang Flag, Hymn, all kinds of Certificates and Membership Booklet belongs exclusively to the ITF.

Article 8. Official Languages

The Official Languages of the ITF are Korean and English. However, all ITF members may speak in their respective native languages and enjoy the interpretation service in Korean, English, French, German, Spanish and Russian at the ITF Congress and other events.

All official ITF documents, including the ITF Constitution, By-Laws and Tournament Rules, minutes, information and circulation letters, shall be written only in Korean and English, and, in the case of any dispute, priority shall be given to the English original. The Korean language shall be used for all Taekwon-Do technical terminology.

Article 9. Financial Sources and fiscal year

9.1. The objectives (Chapter 3) of the ITF shall be achieved by the idealistic and material means listed as follows:

- The idealistic means shall be served by lectures and meetings, Taekwon-Do courses for Gup and Dan holders, tournaments and championships on national and international level, exchange of experience between members, magazines and publications.

- The material means shall be raised by membership fees of affiliated and supporting members, by various money contributions and donations in the form of personal or any other, by profits from events including tournaments and demonstrations of various kinds (e.g. Championships and TV rights). The ITF may allocate part of the revenue from TV rights to the National Associations and Continental Federations.

9.2. The fiscal year shall be correspondent with the calendar year.

9.3. The EURO is the official measure of monetary fees quoted by the ITF.

Article 10. Legal Status

10.1. The ITF is a non-governmental and non-profit international organization which shall exist for an unlimited period as a legal entity recognized by the competent authorities of the country where its HQ is located.

10.2. Statutes and activities governed by the ITF, including the World Championships, shall conform to the Olympic Charter, including the adoption and implementation of the World Anti-Doping Code.

10.3. ITF HQ has the mandate to guide Taekwon-Do throughout the World in accordance with the Constitution and regulations of the ITF.

CHAPTER 3

Objectives and Membership

Article 1. The objectives of the ITF are:

- 1.1. To stimulate, through Taekwon-Do activities, spiritual, moral, physical, and cultural education, and establish social welfare and stability in all countries and regions, thereby contributing to building a peaceful and harmonious, sound and better world;
- 1.2. To contribute to the development of human society through Taekwon-Do training, by encouraging people to live in harmony, to help each other, and to aspire to live in a peaceful and safe world;
- 1.3. To encourage all Taekwon-Do practitioners to improve their quality of life through Taekwon-Do and enjoy it as an integral part of their life;
- 1.4. To encourage all Taekwon-Doists and Taekwon-Do organizations affiliated to the ITF to promote friendship and understanding, irrespective of the differences in nationality, tribe, race, religious belief, ideology, educational status, and wealth. Furthermore, to strengthen friendships, to strive for solidarity and cooperation based on mutual respect, without permitting any form of discrimination, thereby establishing their activities and firmly defending their interests;
- 1.5. To take positive measures for the merger with other Taekwon-Do organizations, whose ideals and techniques differ from those of orthodox Taekwon-Do, in order to achieve the world-wide unification of Taekwon-Do; to promote relations of friendship and mutual benefit with the existing international martial games organizations as well as with the International Olympic Committee, SportAccord (General Association of International Sports Federations), continental Olympic organizations and other sports organizations; to establish friendly ties with economic and cultural organizations, UN organizations, governmental organizations and all other organizations which desire to do so;
- 1.6. To enhance the position and value of Taekwon-Do by developing its tournament rules, techniques, and theory, and to nurture the traditional martial art spirit of Taekwon-Do and the consciousness of fair play among Taekwon-Do practitioners; to steadily improve their practical skills through extensive scientific and academic activities and the education system employed for “International Instructors” and “International Umpires”, including the regular conduct of training courses by ITF high-Dan (Degree) holders;
- 1.7. To ensure the success of all ITF events, including the Congresses, meetings, training courses, tournaments and demonstrations as stipulated in the ITF Constitution, By-Law, and Tournament Rules, by deciding their venues and dates and controlling their organization, preparation, and procedure, and the fight against doping in Taekwon-Do;
- 1.8. To organize and promote the publication and advertisement of ITF activities, to honor the Taekwon-Doists and individual figures who have made a special contribution to Taekwon-Do, and to pay a “Taekwon-Do Pension” to veterans who have long devoted their all to Taekwon-Do;
- 1.9. To acquire the recognition of its status as a non-governmental and non-profit international organization, maintain and consolidate the legal status of the ITF under the jurisdiction of the country where its Headquarters resides, and to ensure legal protection of all spiritual, cultural, and material properties (including both movable and immovable properties), including badges, plaques, certificates of different kinds, books, documents, designs, TV rights, CDs, multimedia materials and etc. belonging to intellectual property rights.

Article 2. Membership

2.1. Members

- 2.1.1. Any person or any organization that officially practices the Taekwon-Do spirit, techniques, methodology, theory, and training ways developed by the first ITF

- President Choi Hong Hi, the Founder of Taekwon-Do, and accepts the ITF Constitution, By-Laws and Tournament Rules, can be a member of the ITF.
- 2.1.2. Any member of the ITF shall not accept any order, assignment or contractual obligation from any government, organization or any other legal entity that may restrict freedom in their Taekwon-Do activities.
 - 2.1.3. Any member of the ITF shall not be liable for any debt incurred by the ITF.
- 2.2. Procedures for Admission
- 2.2.1. Any person or organization that desires to be a member of the ITF shall submit to the ITF HQ a written application in the form standardized by the ITF along with its constitution. If there is a national association already recognized by the ITF in his/her/its country, his/her/its activities as an ITF member shall be ensured through the national association.
 - 2.2.2. When a duly made application for affiliating to the ITF has been received, the ITF Executive Board shall examine it and decide whether to grant membership or not. The date of decision by the ITF Executive Board to admit an applicant shall be the date of its admission. The decision of the ITF Executive Board shall be subject to confirmation by Congress.
 - 2.2.3. An applicant shall be eligible to participate in ITF activities and will have a voting right as a member of the ITF immediately upon acceptance of the membership application by the ITF Executive Board.
 - 2.2.4. Unless otherwise decided by the ITF Executive Board or Congress, only one national or regional organization shall be recognized as a member of ITF from each country or region. However, in the special case, the independent groups might be endorsed as the associate member of ITF in the respective countries by the decision of Executive Board of ITF. The associate member is allowed to submit directly to the ITF HQs the applications for the Recognition Plaque, Dan Certificates and Membership Booklets only, but should strictly obey the rules and regulations set by its NGB such as NGB Congress & National Championship, representation at the ITF Congress, selection for the World Championships and International Courses. The status of associate membership could be withdrawn by the decision of the ITF Executive Board without providing any reason to the groups concerned.
- 2.3. Termination of Membership
- 2.3.1. A membership may be terminated in case of the loss of legal status, death, withdrawal or eviction from the ITF. In case of withdrawal, an individual person or an organization that wants to withdraw from ITF shall submit an application for withdrawal in written form. The withdrawal shall become effective after 90 days from the receipt of the application by the ITF Headquarters. If the member has not fulfilled his/her duties as a member stipulated by the Constitution including financial obligations to the ITF, his/her application for withdrawal shall be reserved by the ITF HQ until the discharge of his/her duties, and after which the member will have to submit the application for withdrawal again, which will be effective 90 days after its receipt by ITF HQ and shall be confirmed finally by Congress. An application for withdrawal by an organization shall only be recognized when it is signed by more than three quarters of its Executive Board members.
 - 2.3.2. In any case where a member of the ITF refuses to implement his/her obligation bound by the Constitution, does not fulfill his/her financial obligation under this Constitution or brings damage to the interest of the ITF, or impairs the dignity of the ITF; the ITF Executive Board may adopt a decision of expelling this member. This expulsion will become effective by decision of the ITF Executive Board; in this case, the expelled shall be suspended from all constitutional rights and activities immediately. The ITF Executive Board shall put the expulsion sanction on the agenda of the next Congress. The coming Congress has to approve or refuse the expulsion sanction against the member. In the latter case, the member regains all constitutional rights with immediate effect.

2.4. Obligations and Rights.

A member of ITF shall be obliged;

- 2.4.1. To do the utmost for unity and consolidation of the ITF, and for the development of Taekwon-Do;
- 2.4.2. To try its best to fulfill the requirements of the ITF Constitution, By-Laws and Tournament Rules.
- 2.4.3. To participate in regular Congress, Extraordinary Congress and other meetings convened by the ITF, training courses, seminars, symposiums, world or continental championships and other tournaments sponsored by the ITF or its affiliates, as well as in the activities of subcommittees or special committees elected by the ITF,
- 2.4.4. To implement the decisions of the ITF Congress and Executive Board,
- 2.4.5. To ensure that all its members wear Doboks, marks and badges designed by the ITF, and that all its Dojangs (Clubs) bear the plaques and flags of the ITF;
- 2.4.6. To acquire legal recognition of its existence in its country or region, appoint its official lawyer and establish ITF programs in its own country or region.
- 2.4.7. To be duty-bound to carry out all its financial obligations, including membership fees and affiliation fees, decided by the ITF.

A member of the ITF has the right:

- 2.4.8. To apply to the ITF for a membership certificate with regards to “Dan”, “International Instructor”, Umpire “A” and “B”, and for ‘Recognition Plaque’ and “Membership Booklet” of the ITF.
- 2.4.9. To protect the ITF emblem, flag, motto, plaque, dojang flag, hymn and other intellectual properties within its jurisdiction, and in case of violation, inform the ITF HQ immediately and take legal measures against it.
- 2.4.10. To participate in regular and extraordinary Congress meetings of the ITF, to vote in those Congress meetings and to seek election and appointment as members of ITF organizations.

CHAPTER 4

Organizational Structure

Article 1. The Organizational Structure of the ITF shall include Congress, Executive Board, Consultative Council, President and Headquarters.

Article 2. Congress

2.1. Status

Congress is the supreme body of the ITF.

2.2. Convocation

2.2.1. The Congress regularly meets every two years.

An extraordinary Congress may be called at the initiative of the President, or upon written requests from at least one third of National Associations affiliated to the ITF.

2.2.2. The venue and date of a regular Congress shall be decided by the Congress. As a rule, the regular Congress shall meet before the opening of a Taekwon-Do World Championships in the host country. The venue and date of an extraordinary Congress shall be decided by the Executive Board.

2.2.3. The convocation of Congress, along with its agenda, shall be notified by the President via letter, telefax or e-mail at least 60 days in advance for a regular meeting and at least 30 days in advance for an extraordinary Congress. In case of absence of the President or that the President resigns during his/her term of office or loses his/her functioning ability for more than 3 months, the convocation of Congress shall be notified by the Senior Vice-President, and if the Senior Vice-President is also absent or cannot act for the President in this matter, the Secretary General will do it according to the procedures stipulated in this Constitution. Any member can, at least three days before the Congress meeting, demand that a subject is added to the agenda.

2.2.4. Financial and all other matters concerning the organization of Congress shall be pursuant to the “Instructions on Meetings” in the By-Laws

2.3. Mandate and Rules of Procedure

2.3.1. The regular Congress discusses and decides on all matters concerning the overall work of the ITF, including its Constitution, By-Laws and Tournament Rules. All decisions adopted by the Congress are final and shall not be subject to any change unless otherwise decided by the following regular or extraordinary Congress. The extraordinary Congress is on equal terms with the regular Congress.

2.3.2. All members of the ITF have the right to attend the Congress. Every National Association may send up to 3 delegates to the Congress, but with one vote. A National Association that sends more than one delegate shall designate one of them to exercise the voting right.

2.3.3. Any National Association that is unable to attend the Congress for an unavoidable reason may delegate its right to another National Association from the same continent. The transfer of right shall be certified in written form, and submitted to the Chairman or Chairwoman of the Congress and notified in advance to the ITF headquarters. Any National Association may exercise the proxy for no more than one other National Association. Votes, given by proxy, will be counted along with the votes offered by those members present except secret ballot.

2.3.4. The quorum of the Congress shall be formed when more than one third of the member countries attend it. Only members who are in attendance, and not represented by given proxy, will be counted in forming the quorum.

2.3.5. The Congress shall only decide the items on the initial or amended agenda. The Members attending the Congress meeting shall vote “Yes” or “No”. All votes, other than the required submission of ‘Yes’ or ‘No’, will be regarded as “Invalid” and excluded from counting. A withhold of votes is not allowed. Any decision by the Congress on amendment to the ITF Constitution and by-laws shall be effective, subject to approval by more than two thirds of all the votes. The decision on dissolution of the ITF shall be effective, subject to approval by more than three quarters of all the votes. Other matters shall be decided by simple majority vote. The election of the Executive Board members shall be decided by secret ballot and other matters by open ballot. Nevertheless, in any case where a delegate with a voting right requests a secret ballot and is supported by a simple majority vote, that matter shall be decided by secret ballot. Other matters may also be decided by secret ballot if the Chairman or Chairwoman of the Congress deems it necessary to do so.

2.3.6. The election or by-election of ITF Executive Board members with the exception of Secretary General and Director of Finance and Administration shall be conducted at a regular Congress or an extraordinary Congress. In the case where a single candidate stands for election to the Executive Board, the Chairman or Chairwoman may announce him or her to be elected without voting.

2.3.7. The procedure for the candidates of the Executive Board Members of the ITF is as follows;

2.3.7.1. The National Associations shall present their proposals on the candidates for the President to the ITF HQ 60 days before the Congress. The proposals after the due period shall not be accepted. The candidates should be members of the Executive Board of the National Associations.

- 2.3.7.2. Each Continental Federation shall present its proposal on the candidate for the Vice-President from its continent to the ITF HQ 40 days before the Congress.
The candidates should be members of the Executive Board of the Continental Federations.
- 2.3.7.3. The continental quota for the ordinary Executive Board members, taking consideration of the number of affiliated National Associations of the ITF and the level of development of original Taekwon-Do in each continent, is one (1) from Asia, one (1) from Africa, two (2) from Europe, one (1) from America and one (1) from Oceania. Each National Association, from which a candidate comes out for the Executive Board member, shall present its proposal on the candidate to the ITF HQ 30 days before the Congress, and after the due period the proposal shall not be accepted.
The candidates should be members of the Executive Board of the National Associations.
- 2.3.7.4. The Executive Board shall examine the proposals from the National Associations on the candidates for President and the ones for Vice-President from each Continental Federation respectively, decide on the candidates for President and Vice-Presidents and submit them to the Congress vote.
- 2.3.7.5. The Election for President shall be taken individually and the elections for Vice-Presidents and ordinary Executive Board members shall be conducted collectively with one ballot with the names of candidates, pursuant to the continent accordingly, bearing on it in alphabetic order to be marked “Yes” or “No”.
- 2.3.7.6. In the voting for election of President and Vice Presidents, the candidate who does not win the simple majority votes from the present voters cannot be elected, and in this case a new candidate shall be selected following the procedures of 2.3.7.1, 2.3.7.2. As for the election of ordinary Executive Board members, the candidates who receive the most votes shall be elected according to the continental quota stipulated in 2.3.7.3.
- 2.4. In case of a state of emergency, a postal vote should be permitted for decisions on urgent and important matters, including the elections for the ITF Leaderships subject to the approval of two thirds of EB Members.
- 2.5. The Congress shall be chaired by the President. In the case of absence of the President or when the President authorizes, in his or her presence, the Senior Vice-President or one of the Vice-Presidents or the Secretary General may take over the chairmanships or chairwomanship. The Chairman or Chairwoman has no voting right, but may cast the final decisive vote in case of a draw. In case of need, the Chairman or Chairwoman may enact the rules for all voting procedures.
- 2.6. An issue, which has not been included in the agenda, may be discussed at the Congress, if one third of the voters demand it and the Chairman or Chairwoman approves it.
- 2.7. The Congress discusses and decides, in principle, on the following issues;
- a) revision and supplement of the Constitution, By-Laws, or Tournament & Umpire Rules;
 - b) election of the Executive Board members including President, Honorary Life President, Vice-Presidents, and Chairman or Chairwoman of the Consultative Council;
 - c) nomination and approval of the Secretary General, Director of Finance and Administration, Presidents of the Continental Federations, Chairpersons of the Standing Committees, Chairpersons of Special Committees and Auditors;
 - d) hearing and approval of the reports from President, Senior Vice-President, Vice-Presidents, Secretary General, Director of Finance and Administration, Chairman or Chairwoman of the Consultative Council, Presidents of the Continental Federations, Chairpersons of the Standing Committees, Chairpersons of the Special Committees, and Auditors;

- e) approval of the minutes of the previous Congress;
 - f) discussion and decision on the proposals made by the Executive Board;
 - g) examination of and decision on the suggestions made by the members;
 - h) appointment of the Financial Secretary if necessary;
 - i) appointment of the ITF Lawyer and members of subcommittees;
 - j) decision on the venue and time of the ITF functions such as World Championships;
 - k) report on the preparations of ITF functions such as world championships and its endorsement;
 - l) report reviewing the ITF functions such as the last World Championships and its endorsement;
 - m) examination of the application of a new membership;
 - n) commendations and penalties;
 - o) receiving and approval of the reports on of financial affairs, summing up of the previous fiscal year and the budget for the coming fiscal year as well as the statement of accounts and balance sheet;
 - p) decision on the amounts of membership fee and affiliation fee applied to the members of the Federation;
 - q) discussion and resolution of other items on the agenda.
- 2.8. The Congress examines the decisions made by the Executive Board concerning penalty measures such as warnings, serious warnings, suspension of rights and evictions to be applied to any individual or any member organization that has violated the ITF Constitution, By-Laws and Regulations, or knowingly inflicted financial and/or material loss to the Federation, and/or disgraced the honor and dignity of the Federation. Details of penalty measures shall be in accordance with the By-Laws to this Constitution.
- 2.9. Any issue that arises during Congress, which is not detailed in the Constitution, shall be ruled on by the Chairman or Chairwoman.

Article 3. Executive Board

3.1. Status

The Executive Board is the highest managerial board of the ITF between Congresses and is in charge of routine business. The Executive Board is in charge of all duties which have not been delegated to one of the other boards of the federation according to the statutes.

3.2. Composition

3.2.1. The Executive Board is composed of 15 members including the President, Senior Vice-President, 4 Vice-Presidents from each Continent, Secretary General, Director of Finance and Administration and 7 other members.

3.2.2. A Vice-President cannot be elected pursuant to the continental quota from the continent from which the Senior Vice-President is elected.

3.2.3. The Secretary General and Director of Finance and Administration shall be nominated by the President and then approved in open ballot by the Congress.

3.3. Convening of the Executive Board

3.3.1. Regular session of the Executive Board is convened once a year by the President. However, an Executive Board Session can be convened any time when the President regards it necessary and more than half of its members require it, or, if more than two of its members ask the President to convene a meeting of the Executive Board and more than half of the members agree to it. In times of the President's absence or resignation during his/her term of office or incapacity for more than three months, the Senior Vice-President is authorized to call it, however, if he or she is absent or not able to act for the President, the Secretary General has the authority to convene a meeting of the Executive Board according to the due procedure.

3.3.2. The venue and the date of the Executive Board meeting must be decided by the President and informed to the members by fax or e-mail 28 days before the regular session and 14 days before the irregular session.

- 3.3.3. In the year of the World Championship, the Executive Board meeting should, in principle, be convened prior to the opening of the regular Congress, continued every day during the Championship and closed at the end of the Championship.
- 3.4. Mandates
- 3.4.1. Mandate of the members is 4 years (except for the President). This means that the mandates of the Executive Board members (except for the President) begin at the end of the special or regular Congresses that elected them and run for 4 years. Where the regular Congress is not convened in the 4th year since the mandates were given, their mandates are prolonged until the next Congress is convened.
- 3.4.2. Members of the Executive Board can be re-elected after the expiration of their terms.
- 3.4.3. In case of a vacancy in the Executive Board, a new member will be elected to replace him/her and he/she will hold office until the mandate of the member he/she is replacing expires. The proposals on the candidates for the by-election shall be submitted to the ITF HQ 7 days before the Congress or Special Congress as stipulated in 2.3.7.1, 2.3.7.2, 2.3.7.3 in Article 2 Chapter 4.
- 3.5. Power and procedures of the Executive Board
- 3.5.1. The President of the ITF shall chair the Executive Board meeting.
- 3.5.2. The quorum required for an Executive Board meeting is 9 (nine). In case a vacancy exists, it should be 50% out of the members on the list of registration plus 1 (One). If any EB member is deemed to have resigned, his or her prerogative as EB member shall immediately be deprived of without any further declaration on his or her part and it should go for approval of the coming Congress.
- 3.5.3. All the agenda of the Executive Board meeting shall be adopted by the approval of more than half of the members present at the meeting.
- 3.5.4. The Executive Board shall bear the main responsibility for the operation of the ITF.
- 3.5.5. Only the Executive Board shall examine and decide on the candidates for the President and on the establishment and moving of the ITF HQ. If the candidates for the above post are present at the Executive Board meeting as a member, they should leave the meeting room at the time of the discussion on this item.
